BUENOS AYRES, FRIDAY, MAY 30, 1890.

drawing out the Minister, this was encountered by the Minister and Senator Del Valle, who were both in the debate. The Gold Duty Bill, as our readers know, provides for the collection of Current House Duties, 20 per cent in paper currency, and 30 per cent in gold, or to equivalent of that gold in paper money at an official valuation to be fixed twice a week by the Finance Office. It also provides for the repeal of the 15 per cent additional duty collected on all merchandise since 1886 to make up for the difference caused by the fluctuations of the currency.
The Bill was introduced in the Senate by informing members to present. Finance Committee who in brief terms planned the chief features of the Bill, the aim of the Executive, and the urgent necessity of making it law of the land. With the forcible logic of figures he showed that the bill was a guarantee of ability to the Government to pay its debts, and that it would cover the deficit that was imminent in the budget, and, finally, how it would enable the Government to pursue a policy of stringent economy and of breathing time to devise reforms to improve the financial condition of the country. With regard to those reforms and the general plan of economy, it was presented to the Senate at present. The
